

Teesri Duniya
THEATRE

CASTING CALL-RESCHEDULED

for 'Public Notice'

Teesri Duniya Theatre, a theatre dedicated to producing socially and politically relevant theatre, will be holding auditions for their upcoming production of 'Public Notice', the English translation of the award winning play L'Affiche by Philippe Ducros. Directed by Arianna Bardesono and translated by Shelley Tepperman, 'Public Notice' will run November 17 to December 4, 2011 at Le Bain Ste Michel, Montreal.

Auditions will be held at Teesri Duniya Theatre

1006 rue de la Montagne-suite 111, Montreal, QC

on THURSDAY and FRIDAY, June 16^h and 17th, 2011.

Contact Linda or Rahul at Teesri Duniya Theatre at 514-848-0238 to set up an audition time.

CHARACTER BREAKDOWN:

To play the following primary roles (please note all actors will be required to play multiple roles):

Abou Salem : male in his 50s, of Arab origin, father to Shahida and the deceased Salem

Oum Saïd : female in her 40s, of Arab origin, wife to Abou Salem

Saïd : male, childhood friend of Shahida and Salem

Hicham : male in his 50s, of Arab origin, father to Saïd and Ismaïl

Itzhak : male, 25-35, Israeli soldier

Sarah : female, 20/30, wife of Itzhak

Please prepare:

* A contemporary monologue

* A scene assigned to you from Public Notice (this will be sent to the candidate upon the booking of an audition slot).

You will be required to read with one or two other actors during the ½ hour audition call.

Email your CV and headshot to: teesriduniyatheatre@gmail.com